THE STRAND YANGON

Published on June 1, 2017 | in Play, Travel

Luxury urban resort hotel The Strand Yangon has launched two new packages to help guests explore one of Myanmar's most vibrant and beautiful cities. 'Off the Beaten Track Yangon' and 'Landmarks of Yanoon' include some of the team's personal Trinquand, Vice President, The Strand Hotel & Cruise.

"To help our guests discover the fascinating history and architecture on their doorstep, we have asked the team to share their insider tips on their favourite experiences in Yangon to help create these aside for guests to participate in the lighting of 500 oil lamps as part of the daily ceremony.

'Off the Beaten Track' package offers two half-day guided walk tours, visiting contemporary art galleries, jewellery workshops, the spice market, a fortune teller, and local fair trade recommendations of what to see and do in Yangon, based on their experience as Yangon Insiders.

"The majority of our team here at The Strand Yangon are Myanmar nationals and have worked at the hotel for an average of 15 years or more. They are family in more ways than one, with generations of some family having worked here through the hotel's colourful history," remarked Olivier special experiences."

The two-night 'Landmarks of Yangon' tour includes one full day tour, or two half-day tours, of the colonial-era architecture of downtown Yangon. A guided walking tour will take guests through both religious and secular nineteenth and early twentieth century buildings. After a short car journey to see the Shwedagon Pagoda as oil lamps begin to illuminate, a private area will be set shops.

Boasting a 116-year history, the hotel has been recently renovated. It's situated at the hub of the city's cultural renaissance, with galleries, restaurants, and shops emerging alongside historic buildings. Further information about the hotel and its packages can be found here.

Read about The Strand Cruise here.

Words by Cloey Tenorio